

The American Red Cross of the National Capital Area

The American Red Cross of the National Capital Area was organized in March 25, 1905 by Mabel Boardman. Our mission is to help the people of our community prevent, prepare for, and respond to emergencies that may be local, state-level, national, or international in nature. We currently serve more than 4.4 million people in the region with offices in the counties of Fairfax, Montgomery and Prince George's; the District of Columbia; the cities of Falls Church and Fairfax; Fort Belvoir, Andrews AFB, NIH and the Walter Reed Army Medical Center. Last year, we responded to an average of two disasters (dwelling fires, floods or weather related emergencies or disasters) to provide assistance to those in need.

The American Red Cross subscribes to the following fundamental principles:

Humanity

The International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, born of a desire to bring assistance without discrimination to the wounded on the battlefield, endeavors, in its international and national capacity, to prevent and alleviate human suffering wherever it may be found. Its purpose is to protect life and health and to ensure respect for the human being. It promotes mutual understanding, friendship, cooperation and lasting peace amongst all peoples.

Impartiality

It makes no discrimination as to nationality, race, religious beliefs, class or political opinions. It endeavors to relieve the suffering of individuals, being guided solely by their needs, and to give priority to the most urgent cases of distress.

Neutrality

In order to continue to enjoy the confidence of all, the Movement may not take sides in hostilities or engage at any time in controversies of a political, racial, religious or ideological nature.

Independence

The Movement is independent. The National Societies, while auxiliaries in the humanitarian services of their governments and subject to the laws of their respective countries, must always maintain their autonomy so that they may be able at all times to act in accordance with the principles of the Movement.

Voluntary Service

It is a voluntary relief movement not prompted in any manner by desire for gain.

Unity

There can be only one Red Cross or one Red Crescent Society in any one country. It must be open to all. It must carry on its humanitarian work throughout its territory.

Universality

The International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, in which all Societies have equal status and share equal responsibilities and duties in helping each other, is worldwide.
