

Leadership Forum Agenda

May 10-11, 2001

Pittsburgh, PA

Thursday, May 10

Top of the Triangle, USX Building (Golden Triangle Room, 62nd Floor)

8:30-8:45 Welcome

8:45-9:15 Introductions: Getting to Know Each Other

9:15-10:45 Topic #1: Downtowns of the Future

Moderator: Mary Jo Waits, Associate Director, Morrison Institute

Cities and Smart Growth

Glenda Hood, Mayor, City of Orlando

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:15 Case Study: How Entrepreneurs Can Influence Pittsburgh's Downtown

Mary Del Brady and Sean MacDonald, Pittsburgh Entrepreneurs

Harry Finnigan, Executive Director, Pittsburgh Downtown Association

12:15-12:30 Walk to Duquesne Club for Lunch

Duquesne Club (Walnut Room)

12:30-2:00 Lunch

Panel: Dialogue on Pittsburgh's Changing Leadership

C. J. Queenan Jr. Esq. Senior Counsel Kirpatrick & Lockhart

Thomas McConomy, Former Chairman & CEO Calgon Carbon Corp

Maxwell King, Executive Director, The Heinz Endowment

William Penn Hotel (Three Rivers Room, William Penn level)

2:00-4:00 Topic #2: A New Federal-Regional Partnership

Moderators: Bill Dodge

Roundtable Discussion

Ruben Barrales, Director of Intergovernmental Affairs, The White House

4:00-4:40 Free time

4:40 Meet in hotel lobby to catch shuttle to Carnegie Museum

5:00-6:30 Reception at Carnegie Museum (optional)

6:30-7:30 Free time

7:30 Dinner Groups (on your own)

Friday, May 11

Regional Enterprise Tower (31st Floor)

8:30-10:00 Topic #3: New Models of Regional Governance

Richard Stafford, Allegheny Conference, Moderator

Regional Examples of Innovative Regional Planning/Governance

Neal Peirce, Chairman, Citistates Group

David Bragdon, Presiding Officer, Portland Metro

Nick Bollman, Chair, California Commission on Regionalism

10:00-10:15 Break

10:15-11:30 Breakout Sessions: Share best practices, ask for advice from peers

- Regional Leadership Development
- Strategies & Tools for Community Decision-Making
- Community-Based Regionalism
- New Models of Governance

11:30-12:30 Closing Lunch

12:30 Meet in Lobby for Tour of Pittsburgh (Optional)